The university bulletins contain the general rules and regulations for study at Wayne State University. It is the responsibility of the student to meet and satisfy all university, college, and program requirements. The university reserves the right to change any provision at any time.

The webpages within the domain, bulletins.wayne.edu, represent the official university bulletin for the 2025-2026 Academic Year. The information contained includes courses, curricula, policies, and academic appointments as approved in advance of March 24, 2025. In the event that a revision was approved for this edition after publication, it is possible these changes will not be reflected here within. Such revisions will be reflected in the next edition of the university bulletin, which will be published online in March 2026.

Undergraduate Bulletin-in-Effect Policy:

All undergraduate students at Wayne State University may choose to graduate under the academic regulations and degree requirements as stated in the Bulletin in effect at the time of their graduation or any of the bulletins in the previous seven academic years, provided one of the Bulletins covers a period of the student's registration. All requirements of the chosen Bulletin must be met. However, if necessary, the university-wide Bulletin-in-Effect Committee, Colleges, and Schools can make appropriate adjustments in order to accommodate students as best they can to adapt their previous coursework to a new Bulletin.
